Equal Franchise League. Interesting Program at First Fall Meeting.

Members of the Putnam Equal Franchise league are well pleased with the interest shown in their first meeting of the fall season and in the program of the evening.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. W. J. Bartlett, who told of her vacation work for the cause at Pleasant beach. Mrs. J. B. Tatem, Jr., read a paper on current events. The address of the evening was by Mrs. Ward Howe Elliott, daughter of Julia Ward Howe, and was a splendid effort.

She discussed suffrage from an historical standpoint, reading from the manuscript which she and her sister have recently completed, which is entitled "The Life and Letters of Julia Ward Howe." A special feature of the meeting was the solos beautifully given by Miss Gladys Farmer.

WOODSTOCK FAIR. Monday Was Entry Day—Many Exhibits to the Various Departments.

Monday was entry day for Woodstock fair. There was the usual hustle and bustle about the grounds and this did not slacken during the day, under threat of a rainy day from clouds that piled in ominously from the east during the afternoon.

At nightfall the great part of the preparation for the annual exhibit had been completed and it was at once evident to an observer familiar with the fair that the exhibition is going to be up to the usual high standard.

In the vegetable department the exhibits show that farmers in the towns represented at the fair have had a successful season. Many fine displays show that the growers in that corner of the county are producing crops that are up to the highest standard.

There is an excellent display of fruit and the usual tempting display of pastry, jellies and dairy products.

Putnam merchants predominate in the list of business men showing in the exhibition building. There were many concession buyers on the grounds Monday, setting up tents and doing other work incident to their preparation for helping to entertain the public.

PLAINFIELD

Croquet Grounds Damaged by Some Malicious Person for the Second Time This Season.

A vandal or vandals were at work in Plainfield Saturday night, made the rounds of the three croquet grounds and hacked up each so badly that they cannot be used until repaired. When the members of the Plainfield Croquet club, which owns the large ground near the spring, arrived at the grounds Sunday morning, they were disagreeably surprised to discover its condition. It appeared as though someone had taken a spade and gone over the entire playing surface, turning spadeful after spadeful of the ground over. It was the same on the other two croquet grounds. The authorities have been notified. This is the second time this year the croquet ground has been tampered with.

Fred H. Haskell met with a serious accident while playing ball in Packerville Sunday. He was hit by a batted ball. He was attended by Dr. Frank Downing.

John E. Spink of Warwick, R. I., was a Sunday visitor in town. Mr. and Mrs. John Nolan were in Plainfield Monday attending the funeral of Mr. Nolan's uncle, John Nolan.

Mr. and Mrs. William Spelling of Providence are visiting Byron Haskell.
